

FISHING THE FLORIDA KEYS

CLEAN ART: Adam Casto, an 11-year-old third-grader at Sigsbee Elementary School in Key West, has won the Keep Key West Clean and Green art contest. As part of the prize, his work will be displayed on this PartnerBin recycling receptacle on Duval Street. The contest, sponsored by OutdoorPartner Media, was part of a program to educate students about responsible litter disposal. More than 50 kids participated.