

OutdoorPartner Media recently organized an art contest at Berlin Intermediate School. Participating students created illustrations for the theme "Keep Ocean City Clean and Green." On May 3, a panel of judges including Veronica Kahn of the Ocean City Hotel-Motel-Restaurant Association, Ocean City Public Works Maintenance Superintendent Bruce Gibbs and Surfrider Foundation President Mike Brian awarded BIS sixth-grader Jennifer Ashwell with first place. Above, Ashwell is pictured with Mayor Jim Mathias and OutdoorPartner Media's Sandy Phillips.
